WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Considerable cloudiness today and Wednesday with few scattered light showers. Slightly cooler today with highs 58-65 upper valleys, 68-75 lower valleys. Yesterday's high, 69; low, 40.

DANCING FOR AN AUDIENCE of millions is done in the desert off Rio Del Sol Road, as a production unit of ABC television readies a Sunday spectacular starring Frank Sinatra, with guest-stars Ella Fitzgerald, Peter Lawford, and Hermione Gingold. The desert set is using powerful arc lights to stand-in for a truant sun, and lights and cameras are on booms and recessed in a six-foot pit near the concrete stage area to give coverage from every angle. The $400,000 production will run an hour Sunday evening. Sinatra and his guest stars were scheduled to appear on the set some time after this picture was taken, weather permitting. Interior "cover shots" are scheduled to keep work rolling for the singer-actor's feature show, which has been in preparation for a month.

CAB Investigators Say Pilots 'Simply Didn't See Each Other'

Translator To Suspend On Friday

Lack of Support Causes Action, Declares Bennett

Palm Springs Translator Corporation will close operations on Friday, and will remain off the air until Jan. 15 or until their fund drive of $15,000 is successfully completed, the board of directors of the non-profit organization announced today.

The decision was taken, according to President Frank Bennett, because only 400 of the estimated 1,500 Translator television service users have submitted contributions.

RAISED SO FAR is approximately half of the amount needed to keep the stations in operation for one year, Bennett said. The stations will remain closed until the balance is raised, or until Jan. 15. At the latter date service will be resumed and the stations will continue operation until funds received have been expended, he continued.

BENNETT SAID that all Translator Stations users, who were located through a recent survey, have received letters asking $15 annual contributions, together with a return envelope.

Translator is still working on the possibility of a new channel and more television hours, but success of these ventures is impossible without funds, Bennett added.

He urged persons who have not submitted contributions to do so immediately, so that interruption of service will be only temporary.

VILLAGE HAS LIGHT RAINFALL BUT U.S. GETS SNOW, SLEET

It's raining here today and if you had a picnic planned for tomorrow, better cancel it. The weatherman says more of the same will be forthcoming.

A tenth of an inch of rain was measured here by noon today with the light rain continuing throughout the afternoon.

Villagers still had it better than most of the nation. Snow and sleet fell from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico and from the Rockies to the Eastern seaboard.

Even Florida was socked by the cold—Jacksonville had a 28-degree reading last night.

Pakistan Gains Pledge of U. S. Aid From Ike

KARACHI (UPI) — President Eisenhower today pledged continued American aid to Pakistan, a "courageous ally," and agreed with President Mohammed Ayub Khan that Free World cooperation for mutual security against communism is essential.

For his part, Ayub described Eisenhower as "an extraordinary head of an extraordinary state."

The two leaders summed up talks during Eisenhower's two-day visit in a 400-word communique which said they "reviewed generally world-wide political questions and in particular the problems of relations between the Free World and the Sino-Soviet bloc."

Asphalt Plant Hearing Set

Public hearing on a proposal to establish a rock, concrete and asphalt operation in the area north-east of Palm Springs, was set by the Board of Supervisors yesterday for 10 a.m., Monday, Jan. 11.

The board acted after hearing requests for a hearing from the Palm Springs City Council and Noel Clarke, representing his Ranch Club properties.

Applicant for the permits is Inland Valley Sand and Gravel Co.

Wind-Trapped Blimp Lands

LAKEHURST, N.J. (UPI) — A Navy blimp with 19 airmen aboard landed safely today after being forced by high winds to remain aloft for nearly two days.

CARLINS STAND ALONE, ACTION SET

Councilwoman Mary Carlin and her husband, James, today found themselves the only hotel operators in violation of the city sign ordinance, and legal action to force them to take down their rate sign at their hotel at 2525 North Palm Canyon Drive will be started immediately.

Harry Paisley, president of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association, which has backed the sign ordinance, said that all other hotels which were in violation had removed their signs as of this morning.

THIS WAS CONFIRMED by City Attorney Jerry Bunker, who reported that he will file a criminal complaint against the Carlins in Justice Court here later today, charging violation of a municipal ordinance.

This will be followed, he said, by seeking injunctive relief in Superior Court — a procedure he used recently in a dispute over business license fees.

This is the second time the Carlins have been involved in a city sign law dispute. The first time they successfully fought the city, and had portions of the law declared unconstitutional.

MRS. CARLIN, who has been criticized for her stand against a city ordinance while a member of the City Council, and who has been threatened with recall action because of this, has maintained in public statements that she believes the present law also to be unconstitutional. It is expected that this will be the basis of defense.

Bunker, in confirming that all other hotel operators affected had observed the law, commented, "I am highly encouraged by the wonderful show of these people on behalf of law and order, and their appreciation of the nature of our economy."

Northern Europe Struck by Storm

LONDON (UPI) — Gales swept the North Atlantic and parts of Europe for the second day today, leaving at least 60 dead and bringing the threat of new floods to the ravaged French Riviera town of Frejus.

No Regulation Could Prevent Rare Mishap

Chamber Request 'Baffles' CAB Aide At Ontario Office

Civil Aeronautics Board examiners plying the wreckage and the facts of Saturday's five - death, mid-air plane collision at Palm Desert today said that the pilots of the two planes "simply didn't see each other."

Arthur Neumann, a CAB official attached to the agency's Inglewood offices, characterized the accident as a freak — one of a rare handful of such mishaps.

NEUMANN SAID HE did not feel that any new regulation would aid in further preventing such tragedies as occurred here Saturday when four persons died in the mangled wreckage of a twin-engine Beechcraft Travelaire and another in the burning hulk of a single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza.

An official said that there appeared to have been no malfunction of either of the two aircraft although the tail assembly of the twin-engine plane had been re-assembled at Palm Desert Air Park pursuant to the inquiry.

Neumann praised the flying ability of Van Nuys pilot George Nottingham, who set his single-engine craft down on Rio Del Sol Road in spite to severe injuries to himself. Nottingham had "full command of his faculties," Neumann declared.

NEUMANN ALSO noted that "at no time during the investigation did we consider the Palm Desert Air Park as a factor in the crash."

He made the declaration less than 24 hours after a Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce resolution demanded closure of the airport facility in the interests of safety, pending an investigation.

The CAB investigation report will next be submitted for perusal to the Federal Aeronautics Agency but Supervising Flight Operations Inspector C. A. LeFevre, based at the FAA's Ontario District offices, gave the Chamber demand little opportunity for success.

"I'M BAFLED AND amazed by the telegram we received from the Chamber of Commerce," LeFevre said. "They ask closure of the Air Park on several grounds including the fact that it has no tower."

"We can't go around closing airports because they have no towers," he said. "We have none here and Palm Springs Airport has no tower either."

HANK GOGERTY, who is a member of the Palm Desert Chamber himself, chided the resolution for its lack of unanimity on the part of the organization's total membership.

Senate Probes Drug Pricing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators today sought a fuller explanation of how three big drug companies could sell more medicine at prices nearly four times higher. The Senate anti-trust subcommittee ran across such a situation Monday as it opened an extensive investigation on pricing policies in the drug industry.

Wednesday Rites Scheduled For Mrs. M. Green

CATHEDRAL CITY — Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday for Melba V. Green, 45, who died Saturday in her trailer home at Suntown Trailer Park after a long illness.

A native of California, Mrs. Green was a Cathedral City resident for one year. She had lived in Southern California for 10 years. Mrs. Green leaves her husband Robert, of Cathedral City; a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Martin, of Ft. Ord, Calif.; her mother, Mrs. Pauline Solomon, of Cathedral City, and three grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday in Wiegels and Son Palm Springs Mortuary by Dr. James H. Backstone Jr., pastor of Palm Springs Community Church. Interment will follow at Desert Memorial Park.

Convicts Break Southern Prison

YANCEYVILLE, N.C. (UPI) — Twenty incorrigible convicts took over the maximum security Ivy Bluff prison camp early today and escaped with an arsenal of pistols, rifles and a sub-machinegun. Fifteen of the 35 prisoners at Ivy Bluff chose to stay behind but the rest followed the lead of Charles (Yank) Stewart.

Tomorrow Night

Personnel Survey Ready For Council

Heading the agenda of Wednesday night's City Council session will be a public report by the State Personnel Board on the salary and classification survey completed during the past three months.

The meeting will start at 8 p. m. in the Council Chambers at City Hall.

OTHER MATTERS on the agenda include:

Communications: Reappointment of Pat Cohen as a member of Coachella Valley Mosquito Abatement District for 2-year term commencing Jan. 2, 1960; State Board of Equalization: Refund of $240.07 collected for Sales and Use Tax during last fiscal year.

Discussion period: For receipt of protests, recommendations and petitions from the public.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: J & S Paving Company claim.

Planning Commission: 1 — Applications for Conditional Use Permits: Edith Ritter for nursery school on Lot 9, Palm Valley Estates, Section 13, generally located at the Northeast corner of Ranchero Road and Compadre

STATE ADVISES CITY PAY HIKES

Estimating an additional cost of some $8,000 per month in pay increases for city personnel, City Manager Dan Wagner said yesterday that the State Personnel Board survey has been completed and will be presented to the City Council Wednesday night.

Taking an average of the additional pay increases, Director of Finance Shelby Langford said that it would amount to approximately $100,000 a year to make re-classifications and pay increases according to the State survey.

THIS IS AN OVERALL survey of all city departments with more than half the estimated increase in salary expected to go to the Public Works Department.

It was pointed out by Wagner that the Police Department, in which a good portion of the wage increase will be shown, is recommended for about $1,500 a month.

Cuba Imprisons Three Americans

PINAR DEL RIO, Cuba (UPI) — Two American soldiers of fortune charged with plotting against the Castro regime received stiff prison terms today.

Austin Young, 38, Miami, Fla., was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment while Peter John Lambton, 24, British-born naturalized American, received a 20-year term.

'Cat Burglar' Strikes Again

Palm Springs' "cat burglar" struck anew last night as he invaded another hotel room and made off with $1,375 in cash and jewelry.

Police burglary squad officers reported that Morris Meadows, a former U.S. State Department aide attached to the Foreign Service, left his hotel room at 7 p.m. last night and returned at 7:45 p.m. to find his lodging looted.

The "cat burglar" made off with a pearl and diamond chip ring valued at $1,000 and $375 in cash.

At approximately 5:20 p. m. Sunday, the Palm Springs police were called to the site to investigate a report of a woman screaming in the desert behind the shop.

Real Characters Hard To Find in New Novel

Tougher Than You Think, by James L. Summers, Westminster Press, Philadelphia, 1959. $2.95.
Somewhere, somehow, someone in a novel should elicit the reader's empathy, sympathy, or understanding. It is tougher than you think to find such a person in "Tougher Than You Think."

Let's start with the leading character — a "leader" he is not, a "character" he is! Plotwise, the question is whether or not Paul Ryan in the guilty party in a minor automobile accident. This reviewer has a bigger question — how did he ever get a driver's license in the first place?

I QUOTE: "He started the car, grimaced horribly, and sat up while he fitted the gears to his mood. Wheels burning rubber reminded people for miles around that they didn't know everything. . . . Two blocks of tortured tires returned (him) to horsepower sense."

Later, "He shot the gears and took off from the filling station with his tail pipes a message to the whole town. There wasn't a cop in sight, but the stray girls looked up to see the pretty mad man, all right."

THEN PAUL SOLD his car to his best friend, who proceeded to all but demolish it, returned the wreck, and welched on the bargain. Of course, Paul only sold it to him in the first place because he was pretty sure that he couldn't keep up the payments, and then he could repossess it. Shows you can't even trust your best buddy!

Vocationally, Paul steered an equally erratic course. The trail was a little hard to follow, but his jobs went something like this:
—Fired the day he planned to quit;
—Flashy start — slow finish;
—Poor Paul — everyone was "out to get him," so he saved face by beating up the foreman;
—A fling at selling sporting goods.

NEXT UNDER consideration was joining the army. O.K., just as long as he doesn't join ours! Always in the back of Paul's mind was the desire to marry Susy, who alternated, with mercurial rapidity, from loving, to hating, to baiting him. But she did have hair the color of April moonlight.

Now let's look at Paul's general outlook. He scoffed at a contemporary who was upset about subversives in the public schools, and juvenile psychopaths "behind every lamp post." (Copyright date of this book: 1959)

HAVING PUT J. Edgar Hoover and Joseph McCarthy in their places with a snide remark, Paul makes it clear that, in his opinion, Von Braun is barking up the wrong tree with his plans to promote more stringent science and math courses in the schools.

But then we must remember that the one high school teacher Paul recalls with some degree of tolerance is the one who "dug" rock and roll, who felt learning dates was a waste of time in history class, and who got a big laugh out of a national magazine expose on Warren wrecking the Supreme Court.

ONE WOULD imagine that if he thought the charges were false, he would not consider them a laughing matter. If he felt they had a basis in fact, his laughter seems an even stranger reaction.

Conversations are painfully adolescent even for adolescents! Paul Ryan is a young man looking not only back, but also forward, sideways, and around corners, all in anger.

And that is the one and the only emotion he aroused in your reviewer!—Gerry Vanek

Coulter to Be Speaker to Writer's Guild

H. G. Coulter, playwright and novelist, will address the Writers' Guild, literary branch of the Desert Art Center, at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 19 The Plaza.

Coulter is the author of a number of plays and books, including "Death Comes to Casanova," "Mind Over Matrimony," and "The Devil's Sideshow." He will discuss his recently published play, "Time for Rebellion."

The guild's workshop meets three Wednesdays a month at 7 p.m.

Vanessa Brown Weds Sandrich

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Vanessa Brown and television director Mark Sandrich Jr. honeymooned in New York today after they were wed here in a surprise ceremony.

Sandrich's mother disclosed the couple was married Sunday at Temple Israel and flew to New York following a small reception at the bride's home.

More than one and a half billion wood-cased lead pencils are used each year in the United States. That's about nine for each man, woman and child in the country, according to the American Forest Products Industries Inc.

EARL WILSON

Jack Paar Gains First Yule Gift

NEW YORK — Jack Paar, who frequently laments that the maids walk in on him at the Beverly Hilton while he's undressed, got a wire from Conrad Hilton while he was in Pittsburgh opening a new hotel there.

Hilton told Jack that as a Christmas present he was going to send him a bathrobe, and also equip all the Hilton maids with blinkers.

Jackie Gleason was feeling mean and announced that when he goes on Arthur Godfrey's CBS TV spec in January he'll tell his followers, "If any rating service calls asking whether you're watching the program, tell them 'No.' That'll louse the whole thing up." (And him and Godfrey, too, I just figured out, because I'm shrewd.) Gleason, being likened now to John ("The Great Profile") Barrymore, because of his acting, his loving and his tiptoeing, looked at a picture of his own paunchy profile, and said, "Barrymore's profile was amateur night compared to mine!"

Julie Newman told us that when Charles Boyer leaves "The Marriage-Go-Round" in the late winter a Mexican may replace him. "What about the French accent?" I wondered. "To Americans," said Julie, "an accent is an accent."

Jaye P. Morgan and Chuck Kelly, of the Modernaires, who had the quietest of weddings, even though it was in Las Vegas, are honeymooning — apart. She's in New York preparing a cafe act, and he'll be working in Las Vegas till Dec. 19. Then they'll move into their new H'wood home . . . Mad Magazine's coming out with an issue that floats and can be read in the bathtub, shower or swimming pool . . . Jim Lowe says any ice-skater can make a figure-8, but he does it in Roman numerals.

The "payola" was already old stuff to the late Joe Laurie Jr., the wit, who died in 1954. Jerry Lieberman, in his book, "The Laff Parade," reprinted this Laurie tale: "Two nice young fellows wrote a song. A music publisher made them give him a piece of the song. Two A & R men at the record company had to be given a piece. The singer had to be given a piece. The disc jockey had to be given a piece. By the time the sheet music came out, it didn't look like a list of authors — it looked like a petition."

Marlon Brando and Anna Magnani have the worst case of mumbles yet in their new picture; they're hardly understandable . . . The pickpockets are busy in the shopping crowds. Watch your wallet . . . Taffy Tuttle did her Christmas shopping early this year. Didn't buy anybody anything and finished up the whole thing by Dec. 1.

ANYONE CAN BECOME R-&R IDOL, SAYS HEADSHRINKER

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Any good-looking youth can be built into a teen-age rock 'n' roll idol, according to a Cincinnati psychologist. He doesn't even have to be talented.

Lucien Cohen, an assistant professor at the University of Cincinnati who specializes in adolescent psychology, explained that such idols merely satisfy a psychological need in the normal, growing-up girl.

Teen-agers who scream, swoon and stomp at the sight and sound of them, he added, don't even really care about their "heroes."

Benefits Result

Probably no law or city ordinance was ever written that didn't work a hardship on someone. This is particularly true in a growing resort community like Palm Springs. Without the adoption of various restrictive ordinances there could be no orderly development and untold damage to the entire city could be a certain result. Measures simply must be taken for the protection of residents, income property owners and business interests.

Zoning is a good example. No community can hope to build for the future without a comprehensive zoning plan. It can't help but work a hardship on many property owners to adopt laws governing the use of their land. And yet without such protection the value of all property in Palm Springs would be unstable. All property owners know the value of zoning laws and have learned to look upon them as necessary to the orderly development of any city.

Two of this city's laws have been under recent attack; have always been subject to considerable criticism, as a matter of fact. We refer, of course, to the sign and business license tax ordinances. The objections to them are understandable. Why shouldn't a merchant be allowed to put up a sign that will attract business to his store? And why should a business or professional man have to pay for the privilege of engaging in business in Palm Springs. Maybe he can't afford it. Are such laws constitutional? Isn't it an abridgement of the press to license a newspaper?

The answer is simple; these measures — like many others — were adopted by the City Council after careful study for the betterment of the community at large. Whether they approve or not, such ordinances are accepted in good grace by residents, merchants and property owners. These steps toward community progress should be looked upon more as a "gentlemen's agreement" than laws. And so they are in most cases. It is unfortunate that a few would want to upset these community betterment ordinances, even if they can.

Perhaps some useful purpose will be served by the two recent cases pending. It may help to emphasize the need for whole-hearted cooperation upon the part of every citizen, newcomer or old-timer, to assure the future growth and prosperity of Palm Springs. We need a little more spirit of give-and-take, because by giving of our cooperation with others we are bound to take back many benefits. We need to appreciate a little more the efforts of our City Council members who give so much time to a study of needed protection.

Non-Wishful Thinking

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Metaphysicians who used to calculate how many angels could dance on a pinpoint have nothing on modern politicians — who today are wondering about the amount of haul in Dwight Eisenhower's coattails.

As always, the thinking of politicians is political. But, paradoxically in this instance, the thinking is at cross — purposes with the wishing.

DEMOCRATS GENERALLY believe that the President's astonishing, if undeserved, popularity will greatly assist the next GOP candidate to the White House. Conversely, Republicans are not so sure. There are party leaders who believe the time is coming when Vice President Nixon will have to cast loose from the "team," shake off the coattails and renew the rallying cry of '32 that it's time for a "change" in Washington.

No Democrat or Republican of consequence believes that the President's world travels and his peace — and — prosperity record will influence Congressional voting. Every realist of whatever party knows that the Democrats are a national majority. It will take very exceptional candidates to win the House and Senate seats against King Mob. But the Presidency is an office apart, more so today than ever. In 1960, the analysis might read: "As Ike goes, so goes the nation."

WELL, DEMOCRATS, whatever they say publicly, believe that Ike is going great guns. He may have made a fizzle of his opportunities, but the American people don't know it, according to the party that supposedly knows the people best. The people in this anxious age are leaning toward royal succession rather than toward an election, and they will take the President's "crown prince" whether his name be Nixon, Rockefeller or Anderson.

This gloomy Democratic forboding is thought to be one of the submerged reasons why an old professional like Governor Lawrence of Pennsylvania, himself a Catholic, is leery about a co-religionist as a national candidate. Any Democrat, in the professional view, will be running uphill and should carry as few handicaps as possible.

BUT REPUBLICANS are apt to discount the coattail pull for a number of reasons. They remember the lamentable history of "Me Too" candidacies. They are awed by King Mob. They know that in 1954-56 Mr. Eisenhower towed nobody into office except his Vice President. And Republicans, probably better than Democrats, know that the peace — and — prosperity structure is as fragile as eggshells.

The Eisenhower Administration, while it has eked through successive crises at home and abroad, has not built its house upon the rock. Inflation has been reasonably contained, but not scuttled by tough national financing. The farm surplus problem has been compounded by procrastination. Industrial productivity has gone flabby at the midriff.

WHILE NOT AS passive as his detractors like to declare him, the President has not clearly scored as a man of action. His troop movements to Little Rock, Lebanon and Puerto Rico came off without bloodshed or glory.

His response with American arms to the defense of Formosa last year, and his "don't give an inch" line on Berlin worked creditably. Events have proved he acted wisely about Suez and cautiously about Hungary. The personal diplomacy following the death of Secretary Dulles is still in the trial period.

BUT ARE WE economically and militarily strong enough for these testing times? This is the question which haunts all persons in the know. Politically, it comes down to a matter of deadline. Both Democrats and Republicans feel that a day of reckoning is on the calendar. They differ as to the date. Democrats appear to believe that inflation will not worsen, and the Russians will not challenge us to a showdown, before Election Day of 1960. The Republicans seem to fear that awesome things can happen within a twelvemonth.

IF THIS IS A true reading of Republican thinking, the GOP candidates may be driven to unnatural deeds — they may join the Eisenhower Administration. Mr. Nixon may have to promise to "clean up the mess" in big missiles and Space vehicles.

Mr. Rockefeller may have to point with pride to the way he, unlike the President, is financing a welfare state with pay-as-you-go taxes. Mr. Anderson may be forced, if he's a serious candidate, to do an "I-told-you-so" on fiscal matters. We may even find an Old Guardsman who will renounce all the fraternizing with Reds, neutralists and allies, and promise a stay-home program.

Those coattails? Well, we'll see. —Holmes Alexander

'You Tryin' to Make Me Look Like a Killer'

STAN DELAPLANE:

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

I'm in a dither,
Just wondering when,
Payola will get me
And I'll go to the pen.

Now that the investigation has gone from rigged TV quiz shows to kick-backs to disc jockeys for plugging certain tunes on the radio, I wonder how long it will be before a congressional committee starts looking into the private lives of newspaper columnists.

LIKE, FOR INSTANCE, this time of the year with Christmas just around the corner.

Comes a nice package, all done up in fancy ribbons. You shake it and it gurgles. Then you begin to wonder.

The card says that it's from so-and-so. You think back.

Supposing you get a subpoena to appear before the probers. Did you give that guy a plug during the year or is it just because he likes you that he sent you that gift?

It can present quite a problem.

OSCAR GILBERT of the Town and Country restaurant in the Center is planning to catch them from both sides. Long available to the public from the Palm Canyon Drive side, he's fixed up the Indian Avenue side (formerly used just by newspaper and radio personnel) for the general public.

While the revamping job was under way, the railings were taken from the stairs on the latter side. Much to my distress.

But I received a special message the other day:

"Come on back up, the railings are in again."

Note to congress — this is not a plug. All I get at the Town and Country is tab privileges.

HERE IT IS December 8 (two weeks until winter) and at last that sign on the office of the FSP (Friendly Southern Pacific) in the Center.

"Closed for the Summer" is coming down.

The FSP is re-opening their downtown ticket office and George Kelley will be in charge. Kelley and Herb Hall, the latter an FSP tub thumper, were in town last week to arrange for the opening.

Note to congress — I always pay full transportation and Pullman fares.

HERE'S A PRACTICE I think could be changed and result in better public relations.

I mean, when you call someone via telephone. You ask is so-and-so in? Before telling you whether he is or not, his secretary asks:

"Who's calling?"

Then after you explain who it is, she says:

"No, he's not in."

Why not say so first, whether he is or isn't?

Then you wouldn't get the impression he didn't want to talk to you.

One thing I like about Thanksgiving is, that while Christmas trees come in blue, pink, red, white, everything but green, pumpkin pie is still the same color it was when I was a kid.

The Night Before...

We have been shopping the toy stores this day. It drives us simply MAD!

What is making my son maddest is that I will not buy anything.

He is about to trade me in for Santa Claus.

I WILL NOT buy anything because you have to wait for Christmas, that is why.

This makes no sense to him. Heavenly days, it may never get to be Christmas. We should live for today. What toys! Rocket ships, scoop shovels that actually dig dirt. Cowboy guns that make a terrible racket.

"AT CHRISTMAS time, we go out and LOOK at the toys. But you have to wait for Christmas to GET them."

To be saddled with a Scrooge like me is more than a young man can bear. What kind of Christmas spirit is this?

MATTER OF FACT, I would like to buy some of these toys myself. I do not remember getting toys like this when I was a moppet.

If I got a toy gun for Christmas, I had to use a lot of imagination to be an Indian. You had to get turkey feathers. You stuck them in a string tied around your head.

Then you pulled your shirt tails out and you were an Indian.

NOW WE CAN buy a complete war bonnet and red pants and a beaded shirt. The gun is modeled after an 1870 Remington rolling block. You can even get a tommygun that goes off ah-ah-ah-ah-ah!

You can be Zorro. They sell you the whole outfit. The mask, flat black hat, cape and sword.

THE WINDOWS are rewarding. Everything moves. Santa Claus moves around crying through electronic apparatus:

Elves are busy hammering on toys. There is a stuffed bear that rides a bicycle back and forth. And all sorts of animals go 'round and 'round on the store window merry-go-round.

We are already planning some mighty nice things for Santa Claus.

LAST YEAR, WE hung up stockings on the fireplace. Then we put a glass of milk and some cookies on the hearth. So Santa Claus could have himself a little snack.

In the morning, it was all gone!

Yes, sir, Santa Claus ate up every cookie and drank all the milk.

He left us a note, too.

IT SAID: "THANK you. The cookies and milk were wonderful. Please leave some more next Christmas."

This Christmas we intend to leave cake. With the kind of toys we see in the stores, nothing is too good for Santa Claus.

IT IS CERTAINLY terrible to have a father who will not buy just one little old fire engine. It would not interfere with Christmas at all. The red one that shoots sparks when you move the wheels.

"Is it Christmas tomorrow?" "No. But it will be Christmas before you know it."

I REMEMBER MY elders used to saw off that line on me. And I am ashamed of myself for doing it to my own child.

When you are young, it is never Christmas before you know it. It seems that it will NEVER be Christmas.

We have been to nearly every toy department in town. Everybody pats this boy on the head and says: "What is Santa Claus going to bring you?"

THAT IS THE WAY adults behave. Always patting you on the noggan and asking silly questions.

The kind of talk he would like to hear is: "Wrap that up. We'll take it with us."

But no. You have to wait and wait and wait. And sometimes we wonder if we can possibly get to Christmas at all.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Business Is Bad

HOLLYWOOD — "Hound Dog Man," starring Fabian, is doing such bad business at movie theatres throughout the country that the headmen in every Hollywood studio are starting to de-emphasize recording stars as boxoffice bait. That goes for Pat Boone, Dick Clark, Bobby Darin, Paul Anka — you name 'em! — as well as Fabian.

"I can't understand it," one 20th-Fox producer told me. "I thought the teen-agers would surely patronize the picture." And Jerry Wald, who produced it, tells me Fox's ads are to blame — "for slanting the advertising away from the romance between Carol Lynley and Stuart Whitman and fastening it all on Fabian."

AND A FAN magazine publisher tells me that all the current mags with Fab on the cover are hitting a six-year low in newsstand sales. Personally, I don't think they should blame Fab — I think they should blame the payola probe and the utter disillusionment of teenage record-buyers.

P.S.: Universal-International is reissuing its 1954 movie, "The Glenn Miller Story." With the phony phobia for rock-'n'-roll on its way out (thank you, payola probes!), it looks like good music is coming back! (P.P.S.: Elvis Presley's coming back too, and what do we do with HIM?)

FIRST GREG PECK took a powder, then Rock Hudson, and now Charlton Heston has refused to play Marilyn Monroe's leading man in "Let's Make Love" (formerly "The Billionaire"). And all because Marilyn takes so long to make a movie! The male stars like to plan ahead, and they can't do it on a "Monroe shooting schedule."

Rock is readying to ride that away in a Western for U-I in February — "Sundown at Crazy Horse." He'll co-star with Kirk Douglas. Following that he will produce and star in his first independent movie, for Gibraltar Productions, as in "Rock of Gibraltar."

Frank Sinatra, at the Sands, says, "I'm a saloon star now and Bobby Darin is handling all my high school prom work."

LINDSAY CROSBY and Barbara Fredericks will be married soon. Barbara is one of the dancers in Tony Martin's nightclub act. This will leave Gary, of "The Four Crossbys," the only one of Bing's "First Four" still remaining a bachelor. Mary Frances Crosby got her first Christmas present. Producer Steve Bosustow himself hung it in her nursery: the original oil painting of her mother, Kathy Grant, as Princess Yasminda in "One Thousand and One Nights."

Before I forget (and despite that hangdog "Hound Dog" business!) — Fabian will follow the young-romance party-line with Carol Lynley in Bing's next, "Daddy-O." Following which Fab will go all-out dramatic as one of the young Marines in "The Hell Raisers."

THAT SENSATIONAL quotation on the New York Stock Exchange of $36.75 per share for stock in Music Corp. of America makes the two top men in the talent — booking outfit — ex-Chicago dentist Jules Stein and his right-hand man, Lew Wasserman — just about the wealthiest men in Hollywood, and in a few other cities too.

Stein reportedly owns 1,500,000 shares, Wasserman exactly half that or 750,000. Which makes them both richer, by far, than the entire estate left by ex-MGM boss Louis B. Mayer!

As a sequel to the above, here's a definition by Bette Davis, the first movie client MCA ever had, of a Hollywood old-timer: "Somebody who can remember a time when studio bosses were richer than agents."

CHANNEL CHATTER — The settlement is all set and ready for the signing by Betty Hutton and Alan Livingston, whom she divorced last April. He gets half the house and ALL the stocks and bonds jointly owned by the couple, she gets complete ownership of her TV show. So if you were shocked by that TV magazine story about Betty's "overbearing" attitude with her hired help, now you know why she's battling to make it the best on the beam!

Zsa Zsa Gabor's pressagent landed her a guest shot on I've Got a Secret, her agent wouldn't let her do it because the pay was only $500 (peanuts for a network show) — so Jayne Meadows took it.

A FAN FLAGGED down Barrie Chase at the Brown Derby to congratulate her on her TV dancing with Fred Astaire. The fan, also a fanatic for a local TV showcase for amateur dancers on which Al Jarvis is emcee, added: "Really, Miss Chase — you made the Jarvis show look SICK!"

Clint Walker had a run-in with Arthur Lubin, the director of one of his Cheyenne segments. I checked it with Lubin, who said it all started because Clint arrived on the set every morning "surlily and with never a good-morning to anybody." Lubin said he collared Clint and asked, "How come you never say good morning?" Clint replied, "Because I hate TV directors."

LUBIN: "BUT I'M not primarily a TV director. I also have 63 movies to my credit." Clint: "You're still a director and I hate directors because I'm a serious ACTOR!" Then, said Lubin, Clint walked away and started teaching his stand-in how to act. I checked with Clint too.

He confirmed one point in Lubin's story ("It's true, I can't help it — I detest directors who won't let an actor play a part the way he feels it should be played, and are there any other kinds of directors?") but denied the other part about considering himself a serious actor.

WITHAL, THE Warner Bros. must consider Clint as a serious actor — because they have offered him the starring role in a feature-length movie, "The Whip," which they originally purchased for John Wayne.

Bob Horton was ordered to wear his Wagon Train wardrobe on his upcoming personal appearance tour. That's because Jim Arness took the same route last year without his Gunslinger garb — and blew it! The fans, it seems, like to see their cowboy heroes dressed as cowboys.

SPEAKING OF wardrobe, there'll be some changes made on The Dinah Shore Show in '60. Heretofore the network has paid the wardrobe charges for Dinah's guests; henceforth the guests, whose salaries get higher every year, will pay for their own.

Comedian Joey Bishop begged off of hosting The Big Party on New Year's Eve and I can't say that I blame him, not after TVing one not-so-big Big Party after another. . . . Says Joey, apropos of nothing: "I've got the most wonderful doctor in the world — I needed an operation but couldn't afford it so he touched up my X-rays!"

Young Mae West Dorothy Muscled into TV

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A young Mae West has muscled into television with a raucous voice, flirty blue eyes and round-house curves to star in an adventure drama, of all things.

She is Dorothy Provine of "The Alaskans" series.

WHILE MOST actresses complain they don't have a chance in horse operas, blonde Dorothy waded right in, fought for her role and continues to howl her head off if she doesn't get her way.

"Warner Brothers came to me for the part," Dorothy said. "I agreed to play it only if I had an equal role with the men in the series — Roger Moore and Jeff York. I forced them to rewrite the first script several times."

"The Alaskans" has the usual fights, brawls and gunplay, but poses an additional hazard for beautiful actresses. When the cameras aren't following the fights they are concerned with snowy backgrounds.

"IT'S NOT EASY for a girl to fit into the violent outdoor shows. But I make sure they don't have me standing around in the background."

"The Alaskans" has the usual fights, brawls and gunplay, but poses an additional hazard for beautiful actresses. When the cameras aren't following the fights they are concerned with snowy backgrounds.

"ROCKY IS A scrappy little creature who stands up for her rights," Dorothy pointed out. "She doesn't let anyone push her around. And, like me, underneath it all she is unsure of herself."

"Frankly, I love the part," Dorothy chattered on. "I wouldn't want to play in a modern series that appeals to women like the Loretta Young program. And I have a good reason for saying that."

"IF A GIRL IS attractive to men in a series aimed primarily at men, then she's usually admired by women, too. Marilyn Monroe found that out."

"But it can be overdone. If a girl becomes aggressively sexy she loses her femininity. I could name a few glamour girls who do that, too, but I think everyone knows who they are."

TV-Radio in The Sun

DOBBIE'S ATTEMPT to impress hereditary-conscious Poppy Herring results in a comedy of errors when he tries to prove that he is the offspring of a sweet and generous father, in "It Takes Two," on the CBS Television Network's comedy series, "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis," Tuesday, Dec. 8 (8:30-9 p.m., p.m.). Dwayne Hickman stars as Dobie Gillis. Featured in the cast are Frank Flynne as Herbert Gillis, Florida Friebus as Winifred Gillis, above, Bob Denver as Maynard Krebs, Penny Parker as Poppy Herring, and William Schallert as Mr. Pomrit.

Red Skelton has Barbara Nichols and singer Bobby Rydell as his guest stars, when wise-acre Bolivar Shagnasty and his girl, Myrtle, write a rock 'n roll song and try to get Rydell to sing it, on "The Red Skelton Show," in color, Tuesday, Dec. 8 (the CBS Television Network, 9:30-10 p.m., p.s.).

Bolivar, as usual, hasn't a job that provides for an honest day's work. While loafing around Myrtle's apartment — much to the disgust of Myrtle's mother — Bolivar tries to compose a song. Finally, Myrtle and Bolivar decide that Bobby Rydell should be the singing sensation to first give voice to their song, "Myrtle the Mermaid." Rydell and his manager, of course, have other ideas.

The Skelton Dancers open the show, backed by the music of David Rose and the orchestra.

Sherwood Schwartz, Dave O'Brien and Al Schwartz write the show, which is directed by Seymour Berns and produced by Cecil Barker.

Michael Connors stars as a nameless undercover police officer. Featured in the cast are Patricia Medina as Laura Crane, George Macready as Latham Grant, Russ Conway as Lt. Billings, June Vincent as Rena Myerson, Gene Rock as Capt. Rogers, John Gaudet as Inspector, and John Eldredge as Mr. Myerson.

Myron Zobel takes viewers to Sestriere, Italy, to watch the famed Kandahar Blue - Ribbon Downhill and Slalom Ski Race in "Ski Kandahar" on Global Zobel, Tuesday, Dec. 8, 6:30 p.m., KCOP, Channel 13.

Seen are ski champions from Switzerland, Austria, Germany, France and Italy, including the world's best ski runner, Toni Sailer.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford
Phone FA 5-5005

The gay days of the naughty nineties . . . have been recreated for the Ranch Club's new Naughty Nineties Room . . . which is opening on Friday night . . . The entire upstairs floor has been converted to this decor . . . and it's like stepping back into another world . . . a more leisurely world . . . and one that didn't hesitate to use warm reds as a color scheme . . . The floral carpeting . . . the fringed red draperies . . . the antique gas light effect . . . the ferns on pedestals . . . the colored lights at the top of the stairs and the stained glass window in the bar . . . all combine to carry you back to the 90s . . . that were both gay and naughty . . .

The decor for Palm Springs' newest and most intimate little club . . . is entirely the brain child of Joyce (Mrs. Noell) Clarke . . . who haunted antique shops looking for the furnishings . . . and supervised the remodeling long distance . . . while she and Noell were in the Orient this summer . . .

Be prepared for this . . . when you attend the opening . . . the waitresses will be in daring can costumes . . . and the waiters will be in shirt sleeves with handlebar moustaches . . . The music from the old player piano will be out of the past . . . and in the mood of the old free lunches . . . the sandwiches will be a nickel apiece . . . Just to be certain you don't get too carried away into the past . . . beverages will be more expensive . . .

Blake and Ray Corlies are off for a fortnight in Mexico . . . flying down Sunday with Ray's partner Pierce Milton in Milton's private plane . . .

They planned to stop over in Culiacan to attend the bullfights . . . where a matador friend was fighting . . . and then go on to visit several bull ranches . . .

In San Miguel de Allende they will be guests of a long time friend Pepe Ortiz at his ranch . . . and attend the Tiente . . . one of the big festivals . . . where the young calves are shown and tested for prowess . . . During their absence . . . Ray's mother Mrs. Ethel Turner of St. Helena . . . is here with Shannon and Rick . . .

Phil ("That's What I Like About the South") Harris has succeeded in bringing a favorite Southern crop to Palm Desert . . . and has some healthy pecan trees growing on his property at Silver Spurs Ranch . . .

Phil is spending quite a bit of time in his greenhouse on the ranch property . . . where he and Alice plan to build a home . . . This may be the start of a new agricultural field for Coachella Valley . . . pecan groves . . . They go well with dates . . .

Some people can't resist opening Christmas gifts as fast as they get them . . . but Beverly (Mrs. John) Stauffer really turned the gun . . . Here it's almost three weeks until Christmas (YIPPEE . . . only 15 shopping days!) and she's driving around town in her Christmas gift . . . a Silver Cloud Rolls Royce . . . You can see how it would be a little difficult to keep that under wraps . . .

Weekend houseguests at the Stauffers' Via Lola home were the J. A. Mullens of Washington, D. C. who flew in with John (he'd been east on business) . . . and Mr. and Mrs. R. Rexinger of Santa Barbara . . .

Statisticians will just love this one . . . and maybe some of the rest of you will be intrigued to learn that 12,400 hors d'oeuvres were served at that giant cocktail party at El Mirador Saturday night . . .

The Associated General Contractors of America . . . there for their holiday conference . . . really had a cocktail party . . . A thousand guests thronged the palm terrace and pool area . . . where seven different buffet tables and nine bars were set up . . . Three-hundred pound ice carvings decorated the buffets . . . One was shaped like a bull dozer . . . and one was giant letters "AGC" . . . But just think . . . all those hors d'oeuvres and Chef Gerhard Knaak didn't sublet the contract . . . they came right out of his own kitchens . . .

Palm Springs got several new citizens out of Friday's Citizenship group at Riverside . . . In addition to Jock Williamson (THAT new citizen really distinguished himself . . . hurrying home to greet his guests at his Citizenship Party) . . . and John McGarry who was front-paged in Saturday's Desert Sun . . . a little five-year-old became an American citizen . . . He's the Cy Oistads' son Stephen . . . whom they brought over from Greece when he was only two . . . adopting him through WAIF . . .

Those pearl bracelets with the gold Nixon bangles . . . that have suddenly popped up all around town . . . were acquired at Saturday's luncheon at Thunderbird . . . and were brought down by Mrs. Alan Morgan . . . member of the Westwood Republican Club . . . It's Mrs. Morgan's own idea to raise money for her club . . . The way they sold . . . it looks like there should be a Nixon Fan Club here in Palm Springs . . .

I probably should have guessed it . . . that it was Phyllis and Joe Froggatt who sent that Edam cheese . . . when they were abroad this summer . . . even though customs (or who knows who) had lost the card . . .

Red, White and Blue Is Party Decor

Red, white and blue set the decor for Jock Williamson's Friday night cocktail party, when the host was in patriotic mood, having just become an American citizen that day. Feminine guests each received a gardenia tied with red and blue ribbons.

The party, first of a series of three, also was a welcoming gesture to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fuller Jr., of Boston and New Hampshire, who spent the weekend at La Quinta.

Guests included the Warner Gilmores of La Quinta, the Ralph Waycotts, Frank Butlers and their daughter Mrs. Cox, Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, the S. P. Manasses, Marie Correll, Eric Staintons, Walter Cruttenbens, Ray Ewings of Pasadena.

Also: Mr. and Mrs. John Galois, the Eddie LeBarons, Glenn Thomases, Virginia Field and Willard Parker, the Dolph Bremers, Earl Cordreys, Mrs. Charles Farrell, Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Mrs. Lee Doud, the Mel Eatons, Clarence Browns, Ned Bishops, Harold Coopers, Walter Sibberts, Bill Bogess and Brian Vincent of Dublin, Ireland.

Jock will be entertaining again this Friday night at his Mirage Road home, beyond Thunderbird.

Arizonans Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wilson who have been visiting here with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, owners of the Las Palmas Hotel, returned to their home Sunday in Tucson, Arizona. Mrs. Wilson is a well known landscape artist.

THE FOUNTAIN ROOM at the Desert Inn was the setting for this group of old friends, who gathered to enjoy the Santos cuisine that is making this such a popular spot this year. Seated, from left, Mrs. Ned Bishop, James French, Reuben Fleet, Mrs. Ben Shearer, and Mrs. Fleet; standing, Ben Shearer, on left, and Ned Bishop, on right. (Pospel Photo)

JIMMY HART of the Ambassador East in Chicago was warmly welcomed by Virginia (Mrs. Charles) Farrell when he dropped into the Racquet Club on Sunday evening. He is recuperating from a recent heart attack and plans to remain in Palm Springs until after New Years.

Tennis, Swimming, Dining and Dancing on Weekend Program

Guests from near and far thronged to the Racquet Club this weekend for tennis, swimming, dining and dancing. Among them was Jimmy Hart of the Ambassador East in Chicago, who is recuperating from a recent heart attack and plans to remain in the Village until after New Years.

Louise and Lionel Steinberg enjoyed dinner at the Racquet Club on Friday night. Shirley Del Rio, a member of the foreign press with headquarters in Los Angeles, dropped in for cocktails on Saturday night. That same evening Betty (Mrs. Arthur) Jarwood (who is back from New York to winter again in Palm Springs) gave a birthday party for Mrs. Ruth Elder, a former San Franciscan who is the new social director at the Shadow Mountain Club. Millie and Bill Iverson were also guests at this party.

Saturday night diners at the Racquet Club also included Carolyn Jones and her husband Aaron Spelling, who were spending the weekend at Whispering Waters Hotel, of which they are co-owners along with several other Hollywoodites. The Jackie Coopers were in for dinner, as were Vivian and Glenn Austin.

Sunday afternoon, Marge and Jack Lambert played tennis and among the spectators were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grouya, artist John Morris, the Racquet Club's first charter member Paul Lukas, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Smith, who are again wintering at Smoke Tree Ranch, were present for the traditional Sunday night buffet.

Thunderbird Luncheon Fetes Around the World Travelers

Red rosebuds dotted fluffy pink carnations to center each table, when Mrs. Edwin Fallgren entertained around sixty friends at a luncheon at Thunderbird Saturday, honoring Mrs. John Q. McClure and Mrs. Harold Pauley who have recently returned from an around the world flight.

Guests gathered first for pre-luncheon cocktails in the club lounge, before being seated in the diningroom for luncheon, which featured roast of chicken and ham eugenie.

Invited guests included a group of Angelinos, Mines, Reg. Coughley, Gene Kegley, Leonard Lyons, Reuben Larson, Alan Morgan and Alfred Van Vranken, who came down by car for the luncheon; Mrs. McClure's houseguests Mrs. Lucille Churchill, Mrs. Phinnister Proctor and Mrs. James Kyle; and Beth Scott who is here for a few days from San Diego.

Other guests were: Mesdames Fred Albertson, Glenn Austin, M. O. Anderson, Walter Brunmark, Fred Barrows, William Bannerman, John Costello, Harold Cooper, Earl Cordrey, William Crawford, Charles Driver, Dan Dunlap, George Dulany, John Dawson, Dick Edwards, Joe Froggatt, Jack French, Ben Gale, Edward Gibbs, James Hammond, Fred Karlen, Kenneth Kirk, Paul William Lawrence, John Luccareni, William Malouf, Harold Murphy, S. LEEANN HOWARD was attractive in this Balestra model of royal blue, with white and red trim, and is carrying red poppies. Commentator Madelyn Fio Rito called Leeann "Andrea's fairest jewel." (P. S. Photo)

MRS. ZEPPA MARX is modeling a gorgeous brocade gown by Balestra of Rome. Pink, gold, blue and silver flowers accent a black background. With it she wears a fabulous necklace of emeralds and pearls from Andrea of Palm Springs. (P. S. Photo)

PRINCE PINO BERINI of Como and Milano, Italy, escorted Madelyn Fio Rito to the Tennis Club Friday night, when she showed a collection of imports. (P. S. Photo)

Fio Rito Showing

The Tennis Club, so often acclaimed as the most beautiful in the world, lent itself gracefully to the Madelyn Fio Rito dinner showing of Italian imports, which she has just brought back from abroad.

From the sophisticated Fio Rito, who had an Italian Prince Pino Berini from Milano as her escort, to the lovely models wearing the chic imports, it was a smart and cosmopolitan affair. Accenting the gowns were jewels from Andrea of Palm Springs, including one fabulous emerald and pearl necklace, and costume jewelry du monde from Jolie Gabor's Village Green shop which neighbors the Fio Rito shop.

The collection of imports ranged from the bright-colored simplicity of sports clothes that would be equally at home on the Riviera, to elegant silken evening gowns. One of the latter, a jeweled beige with a vase silhouette, came from Spain and was from Mlle. Fio Rito's own wardrobe. The evening coats were elegant enough for the opera and chic enough for any soiree. A violet taffeta gown was worn with a purple coat. One dress had a matching jacket with squared collar embroidered in bright-colored straw. Silver cloth and cloth of gold were used in impressive fashion.

The hand woven cottons and floral print silks were from Italy and Capri, where the Weaver of the Islands supplies Fio Rito with the fabrics that are so much sought after.

Mrs. Austin McManus hosted a dinner group which included Wren and Will Tevis, the Billy Maloufs, S. P. Manasses, Mrs. Dolph Oberfel, and Miss Beth Scott, who was guest of honor. Frank Bogert joined the group after the Commandery dinner at the Racquet Club.

The Jerry Sanborns were hosting a group, which included the Bow Herberts, Mrs. F. B. Dauchey of Riverside, and Mrs. Marion Carlson of Chicago.

Also in the dinner crowd were: the Robert Howards and her parents, the Dan Dunlaps, Mrs. William Marcy, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cooper, Alan Maclean, the Bill Bannermans, Sterling Palings, Glenn Austins, the Milton Prells, Monte Warshawer, the Dolph Berners, Mrs. Lee Doud, Mrs. Robert Morrey, Mrs. Jeri Fredrickson, Mrs. Hortense Murray, Mrs. Billy Wright, Col. and Mrs. H. J. Bellingham, Mort and Andree Ullman (just returned from Greece), the Al Linnicks, Mrs. Katie Bernstein and Mrs. Prudence Coleman, and others.

Sister Returns to Michigan

Mrs. Joseph Pfiffner left Friday for her home in Ann Arbor, Michigan, after a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Thelma Waters at her home on Date Palm Drive.

This was Mrs. Pfiffner's first visit here in 14 years and she was amazed at the growth. While here she took advantage of the sunshine and acquired a deep coat of tan. The two sisters visited the many places of interest and their

Visit Brawley VFW Auxiliary

Katherine Spargur of Palm Springs, president of 22nd District Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, traveled to Brawley, Thursday evening, accompanied by Louise Paul, president of the Palm Springs Chapter, to inspect the auxiliary there and install Esther Mercer the president of the Brawley Chapter.

At the Brawley meeting Mrs. Spargur announced that since June 1959, 20 Veterans of Foreign Wars members have been aided in the aggregate sum of $20,000 through the cancer fund of the VFW Auxiliaries.

A 22nd District meeting will be held in Brawley at the Planter Hotel, Sunday, December 13, with a chicken dinner at noon preceding the scheduled 1 p.m. meeting.

Use an old nylon stocking for storing flower bulbs. Put the bulbs in the stocking, but a knot between each bulb to prevent rotting, and hang.

SANDPIPER

Ideal Weather Brings Visitors to the Desert

Ideal weather and those getting ahead of the winter season brought one of the largest influxes of newcomers and visitors so far this year to the Sandpiper in Palm Desert.

With the own-your-own apartment's third unit now complete, all three units were as active as any mid-season weekend.

SANTA ANANS the Frank Harringtons and the Kenneth Raney's both had guests in their apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wilkinson and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Beals, enjoyed the Harrington cottage while Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wright and daughter, Sue, were guests at the Raney apartment.

Sandpiper owner, Roy Sheldon, found a real look-alike in Mr. Wright and after an introduction the twin-appearing gentlemen enjoyed the Sandpiper putting green and pool side relaxation.

THE CHARLES Hester apartment was the week long home of Mrs. John Bellows of Santa Ana and their children. Mrs. Bellows' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Baker, were visitors from Long Beach over the weekend.

The William Seiter cottage almost had a "camp-out" appearance, with their children, Selena, Jessica, Stanford and Chris all enjoying the week at the desert. Jessica had several friends as guests and they — in true teenage fashion — roughed it in sleeping bags.

MRS. BEATRICE Durfee had as her Sandpiper guests Leslie Wright, daughter and son-in-law and grandson. Mrs. Durfee, along with Malcom Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stager of Hollywood enjoyed dinner Saturday evening at the Shadow Mountain Club.

Returning to their apartment after an Oklahoma City visit were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garvin — in a new pink automobile. Also "home" for the week were Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Howell and their daughter, Heidi, and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Phillips. The

Benson Condition Continues Good In Hospital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson continues in "very satisfactory condition" in recuperating from an operation for removal of his gall bladder. Walter Reed Army Medical Center reported today.

A statement from the hospital said Benson is "feeling quite comfortable and spending increasing periods of time out of bed."

Benson, operated on Friday, was expected to remain in the hospital for about another 10 days.

Exhibits, Prize Lists in Print

INDIO — Premium lists, containing more than 1,600 sections open to competition at the 1960 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival at Indio now are being printed. Paul A. Lewis, vice president of the board of directors, said yesterday. Fair dates are Feb. 12-22.

Previous exhibitors will begin receiving their copies of the 140-page catalog in December. Anyone interested in exhibiting can obtain a copy by writing to the Riverside County Fair, Box 396, Indio.

For the first quarter of 1959, cumulative sales of all retail stores amounted to over $4 billion. Last year retail advertisers invested more money in daily newspaper advertising than in any other advertising medium.

Alex Out To Take Pro Title

By ALEX KAHN
United Press International
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Alejandro Olmedo Rodriguez, known affectionately to his University of Southern California classmates as "The Chief," is going after the world's professional tennis championship with all the vigor he used to become the greatest amateur star.

There were no more amateur goals left for Olmedo when he announced last week he was turning pro under the banner of Promoter Jack Kramer. And there are a lot of financial goals he can achieve as well as the title of world's greatest player.

That accolade presently rests on the broad brow of Ricardo (Pancho) Gonzales. But the 21-year-old Gonzales, looking ahead to the time when he will retire from active competition, picks Olmedo to be his successor.

Olmedo, however, must win that designation and Gonzales is ready to resist his efforts for as long as it is possible and profitable.

Olmedo, who learned all about finances as a commerce major at Southern Cal, applied his knowledge to obtain a minimum guarantee of $35,000 from Kramer who said if the Davis Cup star lives up to his potential as a tennis player he should earn $100,000 the first year.

"I AM DETERMINED to become the best tennis player in the world," Olmedo said as he lunched between classes on the university campus. "I know I'm getting into a real tough league and I have a long way to go. But I'm going to the top.

"I have never wanted to be second best in anything I have done and now that I have turned professional I want to be the best."

But Olmedo doesn't expect to achieve that ambition immediately. Every great amateur has encountered difficulty the first season after turning pro. And Olmedo knows that he will be playing merle Gonzales, Lew Hoad, Frank Sedgman, Pancho Segura and the rest of the top professionals who know how to conserve their strength and still play their best game on the long tours.

KRAMER, ONE of the greatest players himself both as an amateur and professional, says Olmedo has "the big serve" so vital to the pro player and he is confident the Peruvian will be a success.

Olmedo gets his first taste of pro action in a couple of weeks when he flies to Australia during the Christmas holidays to take part in one pro tournament and some selected matches before returning to finish out his semester at the university.

Olmedo hopes to get in his final 10 units of work toward a degree between tennis seasons after his first big tour and the dozen Kramer tournaments in all parts of the world.

"I CAME TO the United States for more than just the chance to play tennis," the shy 23-year-old athlete said. "I had to strike while I could as a pro to capitalize on whatever reputation I've made in the game. But my education is still very important to me and I intend to finish out what I started at the university."

"I've worked out with Gonzales many times," Olmedo smiles. "He is a great player and has taught me a lot. I hope to show him how well he has taught me in the months to come."

PAKISTAN TEAM SO FLUSTERED BY IKE IT BOBBLES MATCH

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI)—President Eisenhower's visit to the cricket test matches between Pakistan and Australia may have proved disastrous to the Pakistanis.

Play, now in the fourth day of the current match, was halted when Eisenhower and President Mohammed Ayub Khan entered the jammed stadium to a tremendous ovation.

Eisenhower was presented to both teams and play resumed. The Pakistanis were so rattled they promptly lost two wickets and now stand to lose their third straight test.

WILLIE GOGGIN, right, of San Jose, defending champion in the National Senior Open Golf Tournament played at Bermuda Dunes and Eldorado Country Clubs, retained his title when he carded a 70 to defeat Smiley Quick, center, who had a 74 and Olin Dutra, left, who finished with 76. The three had deadlocked with 289s in the regular 72-hole play and met in an 18-hole play-off at Eldorado Monday. (Desert Sun Photo).

Rickey Plans Blockbuster Against American League

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Branch Rickey, that familiar old battle glint back in his eye, promised to let loose a blockbuster today against the American League which he feels is trying to sabotage the Continental League.

"I will have a statement today and when I'm through they will hear me," declared the still fiery, 79-year-old Continental League president.

Conjecture as to what the ingenious Rickey possibly could have up his sleeve ranged from a guess that he will announce his prompt intention of going to Congress, to still another guess that he may dramatically produce three franchises needed to round out his proposed eight-team league.

Without intending to do so, President Joe Cronin of the American League practically forced Rickey's hand with Monday's announcement that "no definite decision has been reached regarding expansion of the American League."

"We were not the least surprised," Rickey said calmly.

The National League's announcement that it has "no present plans for expansion" was more to the liking of Continental League officials, who insist the only reason the American League keeps talking expansion is to hamper the new circuit's efforts to obtain its last three franchises.

Commissioner Ford Frick viewed Monday's announcements by the two major leagues as a green light for the Continental League to go ahead with its plans.

"Now that the National and American Leagues have restated their positions as announced last May, the Continental League continues to have the opportunity of proceeding with its announced program," Frick declared. "The commissioner looks forward to such positive action as will permit them to qualify for major league status."

So far, the Continental League has five cities in the fold. They are New York, Denver, Toronto, Houston and Minneapolis-St. Paul. Among the other cities said to be interested in securing a franchise are Buffalo, Montreal and San Diego.

ORANGEMEN HOME IN A BREEZE

Syracuse Wins Grid Crown Hands Down

NEW YORK (UPI)—Syracuse University, which compiled major college football's only perfect record in 1959 although it began the season without an experienced quarterback, today was named national champion by United Press International's Board of Coaches.

Syracuse, seriously tested only once en route to a 10-0 record, is the first Eastern school to lead the final balloting for a season since the ratings were inaugurated in 1950. Army's third-place finish last year was the best previous showing by an Eastern team.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder's Orangemen rolled up 390 points and allowed only 59 although they went through the campaign with two sophomore quarterbacks, Dave Sarette and Dick Easterly.

THIS PERFORMANCE earned Syracuse 31 first-place votes and a total of 342 points in the final balloting by the 35 leading coaches on the UPI rating board.

Mississippi received three first-place votes and finished second with 285. Louisiana State, named national champion by the coaches last year, placed third with 258. Texas, which will play Syracuse in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1, was fourth with 247. Mississippi and LSU clash that day in the Sugar Bowl.

Georgia was fifth with 184 points, Wisconsin sixth with 157 and Washington seventh with 121. Washington, Wisconsin's Rose Bowl opponent, received the other first-place vote. Texas Christian was eighth with 103 points, Arkansas ninth with 65 and Penn State 10th with 42.

Syracuse, which ended its regular season last Saturday with a 36-8 triumph over UCLA at Los Angeles, will receive a permanent trophy from UPI.

Mexican Colony Defeats Hawks in Closing Period

Mexican Colony scored a touchdown and a conversion in the final period last night to break a 12-12 deadlock and defeat the Nighthawks, 19-12.

The Mexican Colony victory avenged a first round loss to the Nighthawks and placed the two teams in a deadlock for first place in the Palm Springs Flag Football League. Both have identical 3-1 marks.

In the second game, the Rounders took a 1-0 forfeit victory from the Old Pros when the Pros were unable to field a full team. The two teams are tied for third place with similar 1-3 records.

The Old Pros and the Rounders played a practice game in lieu of the regularly scheduled game with pickup players aiding the Old Pros to an 18-0 victory which will have no bearing on standings.

IT HAPPENS only once in a lifetime, they say, and George F. Kachlein Jr. had that thrill Sunday at Thunderbird Country Club when his tee shot on the eighth hole rolled into the cup for a hole in one. He was playing in a foursome, from left, Murray Marsh, H. A. Thompson, Kachlein, himself, the scorer of the Ace, and Ben F. Shearer. (Partridge Photo).

Goggin Retains Title In National Seniors

Wins in Play Off With 70

Willie Goggin, 53, demonstrated Monday that he still is the best-over-50 golfer when he shot a 70 on the par 72 Eldorado Country Club course to retain his title as National Senior Open champion.

Goggin, who finished in a deadlock with Olin Dutra and Smiley Quick at 289, at the end of the scheduled 72 holes, defeated both of them in an 18-hole play-off Monday. The tourney which started a week ago was played at Bermuda Dunes and Eldorado.

HIS CARD OF 70 was four strokes better than Quick's 74. Dutra who topped the tourney earlier in the play was two strokes farther back with 76.

Goggin won the tournament in 1958, defeating Gene Sarazen by one stroke.

Monday at Eldorado he birdied three holes out of the last four. It was the third straight time he had birdied the final hole.

GOGGIN COLLECTED $2,000 for his victory. Quick pocketed $1,500 and Dutra, $1,200. It was hinted around Eldorado Monday, however, that the three players had agreed to split the pay-off three ways after they went into the extra 18-hole play-off.

Goggin, who registers from San Jose, built up an early lead and was two ahead of Quick at the end of the first nine and three up on Dutra.

GOGGIN, BESIDES his win Monday, had also won the National PGA Senior title earlier this year and represented the United States in International play in England, winning that one, too.

Quick, who was playing in the senior tourney for the first time, twice hit into the lakes on the first round which he finished with three over par on the ninth with a 38. Dutra was four over with 39 and Goggin, one over with 36.

DUTRA FELL BY the wayside when he three-putted the 10th while Goggin recorded a birdie.

Quick still had a chance at the 15th, being only two back.

Then Goggin started his birdie festival and it was all over.

Pete Dawkins to Face Tough Test In Rugby Match

LONDON (UPI)—Pete Dawkins, the All - America halfback from West Point, faces one of the toughest tests of his athletic career today when Oxford plays Cambridge in England's rugby game of the year.

Named to play wing three-quarter on the Oxford team, Dawkins will be on the spot to prove himself a hero or a goat. Wing three-quarter is a tough position because it offers a player ample opportunities for scoring and almost as many chances for fluffing.

Oxford is a heavy favorite to register its 37th victory in 78 games played between the two bitter rivals since 1872. Dawkins is a Rhodes Scholar at the British school and is only the fifth American ever named to play in the annual classic, similar to the Rose Bowl game in American football.

Bill Ellis of UCLA First Player of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Junior guard Bill Ellis of UCLA was named Monday as the Big Five's first "basketball player of the week."

The former Long Beach Junior College star scored 20 points against Kentucky in his second varsity game and was instrumental in the Bruins' overtime win over Santa Clara on Saturday night.

Hickey to Pilot West In Pro-Bowl Classic

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Howard Red Hickey, coach of the San Francisco Forty Niners football squad, will pilot the Western Division squad for the 10th annual Pro Bowl Game Jan. 17.

Hickey's appointment as one of the head coaches for the classic, to be held in the Coliseum, was announced jointly Monday by Paul J. Schissler, managing director of the annual charity game in Los Angeles, and Austin Gussel, acting commissioner of the National Football League in Philadelphia.

It will mark Hickey's first time as a pro bowl coach. Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts served as the West's coach last year.

Hickey took over as coach at San Francisco when Frankie Albert resigned last year. He formerly had been Albert's No. 1 aide for three years, previously having served on the Los Angeles Rams under Norman Strader.

He was star end for the Rams, both in Cleveland and when they moved to Los Angeles in 1946.

The head coach for the Eastern Conference team will be named Wednesday.

The West leads the series, 5-4. The East won the ninth game last Jan. 11, 28-21, before 72,500 fans.

Del Mar Grids Arrive for JRB Game Saturday

PASADENA (UPI)—Del Mar College's 32-man football squad arrives at Los Angeles International Airport tonight to keep its date with Bakersfield in the Junior Rose Bowl game Saturday.

Del Mar, coached by former Rice quarterback Vern Glass, completed its final practice at Corpus Christi, Tex., Monday. The Vikings will work out at Pasadena City College during their stay here.

The Del Mar Turf Club announced Monday it would foot the bill to bring the highly-rated Del Mar marching band to the Junior Rose Bowl pageant.

The school didn't have enough money to send the band west with the team.

"We can't let a thing like that happen to a school named Del Mar," said Don Smith, president and general manager of the San Diego County track.

NAMED DIRECTOR-COACH

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Jack McMahon, St. Louis Hawks' guard, has been named assistant coach and director of player personnel of the National Basketball Assn. club.
